Technical information

Integration methods

Implementing ad code is easy. Paste the code directly into the page, or use an ad server such as Google Ad Manager (including Google Ad Manager 360). You can also use GTM or integrate the code via Prebid.

Passback

We support the passback/backfill feature. If we do not fill an ad placement with a demand, we pass the request back to you so you can set up a final sale yourself.

AYM reporting

Use our reporting dashboard called AYM (Automated Yield Management) to see how your ad inventory is performing. Stats on the number of impressions, eCPM, and revenue are updated daily. You can break down the results by individual ad space or time period and download them to a CSV file.

Floor price

For all formats, it is possible to set a floor price: that is, the minimum price an ad placement can be sold for.
